CHILDHOOD VACCINATION

Each author(s) will be assigned to a particular presentation session that will include other presenters. We also have several panels that will present together. There will be a chair of the session to call the session to order and to introduce all presenters. There will also be a discussant assigned to each session to moderate an open discussion of the work that was presented. The specific day and time of your presentation will be scheduled at a later date. When this information is available, we will forward that to you.

Again, congratulations on your best paper award, and we look forward to hearing your presentation in March 2020!

Sincerely,

Kelly Haugen, MS, MLS, CHT
